The Society shall promote and encourage the following objects by charitable means:

- To stimulate public interest in and care for the beauty, history, character and future of the City of Bristol and its surroundings.
- To encourage high standards of architecture and town planning; the preservation of the best of the remaining features of the historic past of Bristol and its surroundings as well as the best of the existing features of public amenity and interest; the incorporation and blending of such features in present and future developments; the improving of existing and the creation of new features of public amenity and interest.
- To pursue these ends by means of meetings, exhibitions, lectures, publications and other forms of instruction and schemes of a charitable nature.
